

“Frederick Franck wrote in his book Art As a Way, ‘When we go on a pilgrimage, we start from where we are and journey to a holy place from which we hope to return renewed, enriched, and sanctified.’

That is the way I feel about the Symphony. The performances are that holy place from which I return home renewed, enriched, and sanctified. It is truly a blessing in my life.”

THE REV. DR. VIENNA COBB-ANDERSON
RENNOLDS SOCIETY MEMBER